

RELIEF DINNER PLANS STARTED

Event to Be Held Monday;
$10 a Plate Price for
Beef Stew Meal

The Hoover Relief Dinner, the proceeds of which are to be turned over to the European relief fund for the 2,500,000 starving children of Europe, will be held at the Weber club next Monday evening at 7 p. m., according to Secretary O. J. Stilwell of the Ogden Chamber of Commerce. At a meeting of the committee, consisting of A. P. Bigelow, W. Karl Hopkins, Fred G. Taylor and O. J. Stilwell, held at the Weber club today, the plans for the dinner were outlined.

The menu will consist of beef stew, bread and butter, coffee and pie. Plates will sell for $10 each.

The serving of the dinner will be under the auspices of the Service Legion of Ogden with Mrs. J. G. Falck in charge. Musical numbers for the entertaining features will be decided upon during the present week.

Four-minute speakers for the dinner named today are: Mrs. Jeanette Morrell, Mrs. Maude D. Porter, A. P. Bigelow, Mrs. John C. Taylor, W. Karl Hopkins, Fred G. Taylor, Rev. J. E. Carver, E. S. Hinkley, Frank Briggs, A. L. Scoville, George Glen and W. H. Reeder, Jr.

Women will be invited to attend the dinner and will take an important part in the program.

The entire proceeds derived from the dinner will be turned over to the European relief fund, of which Herbert Hoover is the chairman.

The dinner party will be open to all citizens of Ogden and Weber county. Plans have been started to accommodate at least 250 guests.

Additional Clubs Endorse Legion Opera

Three more Ogden organizations have endorsed the American Legion comedy, "The Three Twins," which will be presented in the Orpheum theatre tomorrow night for the purpose of raising funds with which to aid sick and disabled ex-service men, and urged that support be given by Ogden citizens.

Announcement was made this morning by Bob Major, director, that the play has been perfected since its first appearance here and every effort has been made to stage the performance in perfect form.

The endorsement made by Ogden clubs yesterday follow:

The Ogden Chamber of Commerce endorses the production of "The Three Twins," which is to be presented by the American Legion Opera Co. on Wednesday evening, January 19, and asks the support of its members.

O. J. STILWELL, Secretary,
Ogden Chamber of Commerce.

The Rotary Club of Ogden, endorses and asks for the full support of all of our members in attending and giving the advertising of the production of "The Three Twins," which is to be presented by the American Legion Opera Co. on Wednesday evening, January 19, and asks the support of its members.

GEO. S. GLEN,
President Kiwanis Club.

The Kiwanis Club endorses and asks for the full support of all of our members in attending and giving the advertising of the production of "The Three Twins," which is to be presented by the American Legion Opera Co. on Wednesday evening, January 19, and asks the support of its members.

W. H. REEDER, JR.,

The Japanese Club endorses and asks for the full support of all of our members in attending and giving the advertising of the production of "The Three Twins," which is to be presented by the American Legion Opera Co. on Wednesday evening, January 19, and asks the support of its members.

Charged with violation of the prohibition laws, Y. Endo, Japanese farmer of Roy, pleaded guilty in the city court this morning. He was fined $200 by Judge L. J. Holtzer.

Endo was arrested by members of the sheriff's department some time ago. A still made of two barrels, several sections of heavy pipe and a large tin tank were found upon his premises, it is said.

The still was introduced as evidence in the case this morning.

Woman Arraigned on Forgery Charge

Ruby Worthman, charged with forgery, appeared before the city court for arraignment this morning. She is alleged to have passed a check for $10 on the Shaggy store, a complaint against her charges her with forging the name of Mrs. J. J. Keller.

Mrs. Worthman was represented by Attorney George Halverson, who arraigned her for a preliminary hearing on January 31.

The complaint against Mrs. Worthman was signed by F. M. Buchanan, an employee of the Shaggy store.

Mrs. Worthman was arrested yesterday by Sheriff Richard Pincock and was released last night upon payment of $500 bail.

Meldrum Addresses Progressive Club

T. Ben Meldrum, Ogden advertising man, was the principal speaker at the weekly meeting of the Progressive Business club of Ogden held at the Weber club today. Mr. Meldrum outlined various plans for the development of the plans started by the club to boost Ogden.

Fred Williams also gave a short address.
